Welcome to Aalborg

As a new resident in Aalborg there can be a number of practical areas where it can be a little difficult to find your way around the rules, laws and standard practices etc.

The Municipality of Aalborg has therefore gathered together some useful information in this folder which we hope will be of use to you and your family.

Where can you find relevant information about the area you are now going to be living in?

Apart from providing you with general nationwide information we would also like to help you to find things, that you are looking for in your area. In this respect, we would like to refer you to the municipality's website, which contains a great deal of very useful information.

International Upper Secondary Education

Hasseris Gymnasium & IB School is one of approximately 1600 schools around the world which offer an English-based Upper Secondary Leaving Examination called the International Baccalaureate (IB). Students are normally admitted into the school's pre-IB class and, through this, qualify themselves to take the International Baccalaureate course of study. It is also possible to apply for admission after having completed the first year at a Danish gymnasium or the equivalent from an international school. There are written examinations in English, in all subjects. These are evaluated by an international team of censors.

Jobcenter Aalborg

The aim of the Jobcentre is to help job seekers to find the right job, for example via www.jobnet.dk – but also to provide information about qualifications, courses and possibilities for financial support.

The Jobcentre helps people to find jobs in Denmark. Jobbutikken (“The Jobshop”) can for example provide general information about regulations and working conditions in relation to the Danish job market. This can be relevant for married couples for example or other family members. Help is available from English-speaking staff and there are also possibilities for help in other foreign languages.

- Guidance and courses lasting up to 6 weeks designed to obtain further qualifications are available for self-supporting people who want to be better qualified for the job market.
- Information about the regulations governing wage subsidies etc.
- Help with applications.

Further information about jobs for foreign nationals can be found at: www.workimport.dk Short information in English, German, Swedish and Polish.
